were made to some of our Creditors, of which I have nothing of except in one instance, yet at the same time did believe that I had sufficient property to pay all my just debts, — after finishing my Settlement with it and that it ought to receive my time for the benefit of my own pecuniary creditors in the exclusion of Company Creditors; but after taking the advice of friends on the subject the amount was distributed equally amongst them all; I can further add to give mentioned detailed in disregarding the
